FRANK PALMER'S CHANCE

THE ILLINOIS SENATOR LIKELY TO BE APPOINTED POSTAL PRINCE.

Which One at Washington Thinks He Ought to Be—Other Candidates Have a Tendency to Combine Against Him—Representative Cannon Hopes for the Speech of the Session—Mr. Cullom's Chicago Friends Advise Him to Remain in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—[Special.]—Senator Palmer goes to the White House to-morrow to have a talk with the President about ex-Governor Frank Palmer for Postmaster-General. Mr. Palmer has not come out in a newspaper way as yet, but his friends have been busy for him for some time. He has brought his chances with himself to Washington. His name was first suggested to the President not a dozen months ago by some leading Illinois politicians who were visiting Lincoln whose office was under discussion. Mr. Harrison seemed to think favorably of him, and declared that he, Palmer, was just the kind of a man he was looking for. At this point some wicked objections were first heard, which he proceeded to investigate, and the matter dropped out of sight for a time. Then it became known that Palmer was the man the President had in mind. This was noised around Springfield, and Governor Fifer and a few Illinois Republicans here got to work. The objections were run down and found to be groundless. Then the friends of the ex-Governor's claims began to circulate petitions for his appointment, and secured a number of signatures, when

Peddlers and unscrupulous grocers will tell you the said they offer is "Pearline," "same as Pearline," "or as good as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is the Standard Washing Compound today—has no rival—no equal—never peddled—gives no prizes—but stands on the foundation on which it

KILT SUITS
Half Price.

$3 Shoes.

Worth double the price we ask, and that's a low estimate to place on our Children's Kilt Suits. Yet we let them go at half their value. It's an open question—the reason—we made a great many more than enough to go around, made them well, from best wool fabrics, of neat, natty patterns, and now offer them at these give-away prices:

Spring Suits and Overcoats are at their best—cut, style, prices.

$3.50 Shoes will possibly be all gone after today. Among them are: $3.50, $4, $5 Shoes. Not a fault with the leather or the making—we'll vouch for both.
